

FIUME FIASCO ROLLS BACK WAR CLOUDS

Treaty of Rapallo Put in Effect May Bring Peace to S. E. Europe

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) ROME, Dec. 30.—War clouds which have been hanging low over Southern Europe for nearly two years, were rolled back today when Italy began to put into effect the treaty of Rapallo at Fiume.

The threat of an armed break between Italy and Jugoslavia over Fiume and other disputed territory on the Adriatic was at an end. But for a year it had been intensified by Gen.

GREETINGS Happy Days

The days are here when gloom, and fear, and trouble must depart; when everyone must think of fun, and joy be in each heart; when greed and hate, and every trait that's selfish or that's mean should take a tip, and pack its grip, and leave the happy scene. Friend unto friend does now extend a wish for luck and cheer. For a New Year gay, I make this wish sincere: May the days bring you everything that makes for gladness, true—and may they bless you with success that lasts a whole life through.

Uberto d'Annunzio, the firebrand Italian poet, who seized Fiume and a number of islands on the Dalmatian coast in bold defiance of the Italian government.

d'Annunzio's volunteers, not content with land seizures, even attacked Italian frontier guards and on several occasions these clashes involved the serenity of all Southern Europe from the Mediterranean Sea to Rome.

No longer does the fiery Italian poet's battle flag float over the governor's palace at Fiume. No more do the warships of d'Annunzio's "navy" steam slowly back and forth inside the Fiume harbor. Peace has come to Fiume, and the people of Fiume are happy and happy. They tired of the military positions of d'Annunzio's volunteers. Also they hope to get enough to eat now.

DIDN'T DISSIPATE GETS LIGHT FINE

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—The high cost of living, coupled with previous model behavior and abstemiousness from the proverbial "wine, women and song," today won for Alva Winkop, of Lumberton, Ind., confessed embezzler of $20,000 from the brokerage firm of Clement Curtis & Co., a light sentence and the promise of a pardon at the end of 11 months.

Winkop today pleaded guilty before Judge McDonald and told the court that it was "the high cost of living and the difficulty a married man has in providing for his family these days" that led him to take the money. Winkop told the oft-repeated hope of "paying it back some day," but was able to give an exact account of all the money he had taken. His figures proved correct and Judge McDonald sentenced him to from 1 to 12 years.

VOLUNTARY WAGE REDUCTIONS

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Voluntary wage reductions ranging as high as 20 per cent, have been suggested to the management of the Pullman car shops by 9,500 employees. The offer to accept wage cuts was made by the employees entirely on their own initiative, officials of the company said.

The purpose of the offer, the employees said, was to enable the company to continue operations despite the present business depression without curtailment of the plants working force.

NO UNITED ACTION TO LIMIT PRODUCTION

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—There will be no united action by the motion picture industry to limit production, the matter being left to the individual discretion of the various film firms, it was stated today at the offices of the National Association of Motion Picture

The matter of over-production of films was discussed at a meeting of the larger producing firms, but it was considered wise to adopt no national policy. Many of the smaller concerns already have been forced to cut production to market conditions.

The Times' want ads bring astonishing results if their users are to be believed.
